CMI executive diplomas in management

Whether you are at the start of your management career, seeking to move up through your organization or a proven performer in the boardroom, the CMI offer you a wide range of flexible qualifications, leading towards the Chartered Manager status and, will give the support and guidance to succeed at every stage of a management career.

The benefits of gaining CMI diplomas

In today's business environment, individuals need to perform at 100% to stand out from the crowd. Being a Chartered Manager (CMgr) gives this edge.

- 1 Having the CMgr title on a business card tells suppliers and customers that they are dealing with a professional and, it gains respect.
- 1 It enables the individual to develop a broad network of professional contacts globally to share best practice and maintain knowledge of new techniques.
- 1 The status will raise the individuals profile both internally and externally and has the power to transform careers.
- 1 It can transform the way you work and the way your organization operates, ensuring that you are distinguished as a true manager of excellence.

How CMI's diplomas differ from an academic qualification

The Diploma programs concentrates on developing the competency based practical skills, knowledge and understanding required in today's workplace. Rather than purely academic qualifications which are based on more theoretical learning.

Who are these diplomas for?

Professional Diploma in Management and Leadership

Designed for middle and first line managers who want to develop their management skills and who aspire to senior management.

Executive Diploma in Strategic Management and Leadership

Designed for Executive senior managers who have the responsibility to translate organizational strategy into effective operational performance.

Executive Diploma in Strategic Management
